The California cases are in the process of being transferred to the Honorable Dean D. Pregerson for coordination and consolidation.

Defendants Brad A. Morrice, Robert K. Cole, Edward F. Gotschall, and Patti Dodge (“Defendants”) submit that the two federal securities cases pending in the Southern District of New York and all of the above-listed cases in the Central District of California are appropriate for coordination and consolidation because they “arise from the same or a closely related transaction, happening or event” involving New Century Financial Corporation’s accounting methodologies and financial statements giving rise to claims under the federal securities laws. Central District of California L.R. 83-1.3.1. All of these cases are governed by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 (“PSLRA”). They involve many of the same defendants. Litigating these cases in different courts would require a duplication of effort that would thwart judicial efficiency, cause inconvenience to the parties and witnesses involved, and could potentially result in conflicting findings. Coordination and consolidation of these cases would result in “a substantial saving of judicial resources” and would advance “the just efficient and economical conduct of the litigations.” Southern District of New York Rule for the Division of Business Among District Judges 15. As such, Defendants intend to file motions pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1404(a) to transfer the present case and case number 07-CV-2903 GBD (KNF), both of which are currently pending in the Southern District of New York, to the Central District of California.

Several related derivative actions have also been filed. While these cases do not allege violations of the federal securities laws, they do allege harm as a result of essentially the same set of alleged events and statements made in 2006. Two of those derivative actions were filed in Central District of California and the remaining derivative actions have been filed in the California Superior Court, in the County of Orange.
